SPANISH LANGUAGE FOOD SAFETY COURSE OFFERED AT CDHD

The Central District Health Department (CDHD) will offer the Basic Food Safety Course in Spanish on Monday March 27, 2006. The two-hour class will be held from 9:00 – 11:00 a.m. at CDHD, 707 North Armstrong Place, Boise, (near the intersection of Emerald and Five Mile). This class is designed to provide Spanish speaking entry-level food service employees with the basic knowledge they need to maintain a safe and clean work environment. Those interested in attending the Spanish Language Food Safety Course are encouraged to call 327-7499 to reserve a seat.

CDHD offers the Spanish Language Basic Food Safety Course once a month, in addition to a full schedule of English language food safety classes. For more information on Food Safety Courses offered through the Central District Health Department, please call 208-327-7499 or visit the CDHD website: www.cdhd.idaho.gov.
